Peter and the Bike

One day, Peter borrowed a bike from his neighbour Tom. The next day, he brought it back together with another little bike. ‘That’s not mine,’ said Tom. ‘Yes, it is,’ said Peter. ‘While your bike was staying with me, it had a baby.’

Some time later, Peter asked Tom to lend him a bike again. Tom agreed, 5 hoping that he would once again receive two bikes in return. However, days passed and Peter had still not returned the bike. Finally Tom lost patience and went to demand his property. ‘I am sorry,’ said Peter. ‘I can’t give you back your bike, since it has died.’ ‘Died!’ screamed Tom, ‘how can a bike die?’ ‘Well,’ said Peter, ‘you believed me when I told 10 you that your bike had had a baby.’
